Mukta foundation is committed to mobilize the power and passion of volunteering. Why volunteer? Change: Volunteering gives you an opportunity to make a difference to people's lives in the community. It helps you to convert your free time into an activity which can free someone from the shackles of illiteracy, poverty and ignorance. Awareness: By exposing you to the ground realities, it gives you an opportunity to increase your social awareness. This understanding deepens your social appreciation. Circle: Volunteering helps you expand your social circle by providing a platform to meet other like-minded passionate people from diverse backgrounds. Learn: Volunteering helps you to discover your strengths and talents. It helps you gain self-confidence, hone managerial skills and manage tasks. Fun: Volunteering is fun and fulfilling.
