

Newsletter

Mukta works for many NGOs and has many internal teams. Newsletter brings together the varied activities of Mukta and plugs the gap among different teams. Newsletter is a report of our monthly activities. The newsletter carries NGO updates, Volunteer profiles, articles and information about new opportunities in pipeline. The newsletter is published on time to time basis. You can download previous issues from the archives section. Please subscribe (enter your details in the right column) to receive newsletter through mail. Please let us know about how to make Newsletter a better reading experience. If you have any suggestions/comments/feedback, write to the editor. Download the current issue: September 2006 (234kb)
